LOCAL AND FOREIGN MARKETS

UPWARD MOVE

Studebaker Prominent Among Motor Issues, With Good Buying Demand.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17 .-Stocks resumed their upward movement today with oil and motor issues leading in strength and activity. Prominent among the motor issues was Studebaker which reached 55 1-2 on what is considered very good class of buying. Pan-American Petroleum was the favorite in the oil stocks, reaching 79 7-8, or the highest price at which this stock has ever sold.

Advices from New York were to the effect that the senate committee had tabled the Mc-Adoo railroad plan, practically assures the postponement of the subject for the next congress. Railroad stocks were a bit firmer on news from Washington that the house appropriation committee had favorably reported the bill carrying $750,000,-000 for government operation of railroads. On such a rally as was established today, there was, of course, some profit taking but the preponderance of news was bullish and we believe the chances still favor the buyer of securities.
